What is the Coach 360 Degree Survey?

Pivot's Coach 360 Degree Survey is a survey tool designed for leaders who work with leaders - either across or within schools - to improve leadership practice.

The Coach 360 Degree Survey allows you to gather targeted and objective feedback from peers, managers and others who have worked closely with you in your context. You own the process, with complete control over the selection of your survey respondents.

The results and reports are confidential so you can decide how to utilise this information. Pivot's reports take a strengths-based approach.

The survey has two distinct parts:

Part 1: Self Reflection.

You will receive:

- Access to an evidence-based survey tool with comprehensive results
- Insight into your leadership effectiveness and potential

- Ability to target your professional development and manage your career progression as a leader of leaders

Your insights:
